

The McCord Museum celebrates our past and present lives – Our history, our people, and our stories. A museum that mirrors a city open to the world, the McCord is an intelligent Museum that connects individuals with cultures and communities, offering a current take on today's issues. Contemporary and interactive, the McCord encourages us to reflect upon the past while engaging with the present. All of the Museum's activities revolve around six core values: rigour, integrity, inclusion, audacity, creativity and commitment.

McCord Museum is recruiting
Day Camp Counselor
Temporary summer student employment*
Reference #201706E

For the last several years the McCord has offered a perfect mix of history and fun with its day camp. The Museum presents two themes inspired by the richness of its collections and in line with current exhibitions. For 2016 the themes are Dreaming Architecture and Abracadabra!

The Education Department wishes to hire a student who knows how to enthusiastically and interestingly communicate the presented themes to the young campers in order to offer them an exciting discovery of the Museum and its exhibitions in a bilingual environment. The counselor will also have to ensure the safety and supervision of children during the course of the day camp and daycare to ensure quality customer service.

Reporting to the Head, Education Programs, the counselor will have the following responsibilities:

- Welcoming young people; communicate relevant and correct information in an appropriate and respectful language;
- Animate scenarios visits and workshops;
- Accompany groups during outings and exterior activities;
- Supervise participants safely throughout the camp (dinners, outings, daycare, etc.)
- Prepare the facilities and equipment (activity room, art material, educational materials, etc.) for the children (this includes light cleaning tasks)
- Contribute to the development of the activities and their contents.

Employment Conditions :

- Temporary summer student employment; unionized, 35 hours per week, for 10 weeks;
- Compensation of $16.75 per hour; employment starting on June 19 and ending on August 25, 2017.

Qualifications and Profile Required:

- University degree in relevant field (history, art, archeology, museology, education) or current enrolment in a related university degree program;
- One-year relevant experience or working with groups in a different environment;
- First-aid certification or willingness to follow training;
- Dynamism, sense of responsibility, resourcefulness and creativity;
- Effective communication, including ability to make content accessible to different public;
- Fluency in both English and French;
- Polished appearance and professional and respectful attitude;
- Good historical knowledge: Montreal, Quebec and Canada;
- An inclination for architecture or art of magic could be an asset.

*Please note that candidates must be eligible for Canada Summer Jobs and Young Canada Works programs for heritage establishments and be registered in the YCW on-line candidate inventory.

Applications for the position will be accepted until Monday, May 1st, 2017 at noon. Qualified candidates are encouraged to apply by email. Please provide: 1) Letter of intent (Ref. #201706E) 2) Curriculum vitae.
Forward to Lucie Beaupré, Head, Human Resources. By e-mail: rh.mccord@mccord-stewart.ca or by post: 2175 Victoria Street, Montreal, QC H3A 2A3

For details on the McCord Museum, please consult the McCord website: www.mccord-museum.qc.ca
Although we thank all applicants for their interest, only selected candidates will be called for an interview.