MY ALLYSHIP IN ACTION TO SUPPORT INDIGENOUS NATIONS PARTICIPATORY WORKSHOP AT THE MUSEUM

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY

What concrete actions can we take in our daily lives to become allies in Indigenous struggles? Reconciliation requires an awareness of Indigenous realities through dialogue and tangible actions led by Indigenous and non-Indigenous individuals. Developed in response to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, this workshop is a call to action and reflection rooted in participants' ability to consider these realities and commit to reconciliatory actions. It will spark individual and collective actions to create dialogue and not speak on others' behalfs. The process starts today! Participants are invited to examine the impacts of colonization and contribute to an intercultural approach to start a conversation for future generations.

MAJOR THEMES

Transforming the world

Humans have always wanted to control their environment by creating machines, devices, objects and new techniques. These inventions enrich our daily lives and transform our relationship to the world.

Open-mindedness

In the effervescence of large city centres, cultures mix, and ways of living, being and doing are enriched. From this diversity emerges curiosity that becomes the source of renewed dialogue.
