

The McCord Museum celebrates our past and present lives – Our history, our people, and our stories. A museum that mirrors a city open to the world, the McCord is an intelligent Museum that connects individuals with cultures and communities, offering a current take on today's issues. Contemporary and interactive, the McCord encourages us to reflect upon the past while engaging with the present. All of the Museum's activities revolve around six core values: rigour, integrity, inclusion, audacity, creativity and commitment.

The McCord Museum is recruiting a
Day Camp Coordinator
Temporary summer student employment*
Reference #201705E

For the last several years the McCord has offered a perfect mix of history and fun with its day camp. The Museum presents two themes inspired by the richness of its collections and in line with current exhibitions. For 2017 the themes are: Dreaming Architecture and Abracadabra!

The Education Department wishes to hire a student who knows how to enthusiastically and interestingly communicate the presented themes to the young campers in order to offer them an exciting discovery of the Museum and its exhibitions in a bilingual environment. The incumbent will be in charge of coordinating the day camp and daycare activities in order to maintain the quality of services.

Reporting to the Head, Education Programs, the Coordinator will have the following responsibilities:

- Participate in the elaboration and coordination of proposed workshops;
- Plan and implement the training sessions of the camp counselors;
- Coordinate the logistics of groups of children at the day camp;
- Liaise with parents about enrollment, child health, expectations and concerns that may arise;
- Monitor feedback for the evaluation of the two programs;
- Ensure that quality standards are observed in services offered;
- When required, give tours and workshops for children at the day camp;
- Supervise, in collaboration with the Head, Education Programs, the work of camp counselor and day care staff.

Employment conditions:

- Temporary summer student employment; 35 hours per week, for 13 weeks;
- Compensation of $19 per hour; employment starting on June 5 and ending on September 1, 2017.

Qualifications and Profile Required:

- University degree in relevant field (history, art, archeology, museology, education) or current enrolment in a related university degree program;
- 2 years relevant experience or as a day camp counselor;
- Dynamism, sense of responsibility, organizational ability, resourcefulness, excellent interpersonal skills, and ability to mobilize a team;
- Effective communication, including ability to make content accessible to different public;
- Fluency in both English and French;
- Polished appearance; professional and respectful attitude;
- Good historical knowledge of Montreal, Quebec and Canada.
- An inclination for architecture or art of magic could be an asset.
