ACTIVITY SHEET

UNDERSTANDING AND BUILDING OUR WORLD AND OUR STORIES TOGETHER

At the McCord Museum, we use objects, stories and shared experiences to help our visitors better understand the world around them, no matter their age or background.

With our participatory approach and our civic perspective, we prioritize observation, interrogation, and dialogue in our activities.

Type of activity: Workshop
Activity title: Photo Scavenger Hunt
Target audience: Elementary cycles 2 and 3 – Secondary – Teachers – Welcome class
Educational area: Arts – Math, science and technology
Length: 60 minutes

Description of the activity
A scavenger hunt around the history of photography and the fundamentals of composition. Armed with tablets, participants wander the Museum's galleries and rediscover the exhibitions through a new lens, developing their eye for photography.

Strategies

- Handling the education collection
- Observation
- Digital exploration

Attitudes developed

- Curiosity
- Creativity

Major themes addressed

- Transforming the world
  Humans have always wanted to control their environment by creating machines, devices, objects and new techniques. These inventions enrich our daily lives and transform our relationship to the world.
