McCord Museum Holiday Programming continues

Relive the magic of Ogilvy's mechanical Christmas window displays and take part in a host of memorable family activities

Montreal, December 18, 2019 – In the eyes of both young and old, toys and games are inseparable from the magic of the holidays. Nothing is more infectious than the joy of children and the memory it evokes in grownups. With this in mind, the McCord Museum is offering special holiday programming until January 5, 2020. There is entertainment for the whole family including Ogilvy's magnificent mechanical window displays, the exhibition It's Your Move! Board Games: Larger Than Life, guided activities for the children, and musical performances. These will entertain the whole family and create lasting memories! Admission to the Museum is free for children twelve and under.
