

ACTIVITY SHEET

UNDERSTANDING AND BUILDING OUR WORLD AND OUR STORIES TOGETHER

At the McCord Museum, we use objects, stories and shared experiences to help our visitors better understand the world around them, no matter their age or background.

With our participatory approach and our civic perspective, we prioritize observation, interrogation, and dialogue in our virtual activities.

Type of activity: Tour

Activity title: Chapleau – profession: cartoonist

Target audience: Secondary – CEGEP – University – Adult – Senior

Educational area: Social sciences (History and citizenship) – Arts

Length: 45 minutes

Description of the activity

Multidisciplinary, multifaceted and versatile artist, self-made man, innovator and all-around character Serge Chapleau has drawn brilliant cartoons of Québec's leading political and cultural figures. Through his work, he paints uproarious portraits of popular culture and current events in Québec over the past 50 years. The tour explores the artistic language of cartoons and Chapleau's own unmistakable style through the lens of the political and social contexts in which his tremendous output is rooted.

- Transforming the world

Humans have always wanted to control their environment by creating machines, devices, objects and new techniques. These inventions enrich our daily lives and transform our relationship to the world.

McCord Museum - Information on the Online Activities Guided Tour

Required materials

- 1 computer with an Internet connection, speakers, a microphone and, ideally, a webcam.

- 1 projector

The video should be projected on a large screen (IWB, large television, screen, etc.)

Sign in

The cultural mediator will interact with the group through Zoom.

Once your reservation has been confirmed, you will receive detailed sign in information for the platform Zoom. It is strongly recommended that you acquaint yourself with the sign in process before the start of the virtual activity.

Virtual guided tour

The cultural mediator will lead a virtual tour of the exhibition through a video developed by the Educational, Citizen and Cultural Action team at the McCord-Stewart Museum. It will be projected onto a large screen from the classroom computer.

The mediator and students are free to discuss the topics at hand as they are presented. Like the guided tours at the Museum, the in-class guided tours involve interaction.

The educator must remain close to the computer should any technical difficulties arise.
