

ACTIVITY SHEET

UNDERSTANDING AND BUILDING OUR WORLD AND OUR STORIES TOGETHER

At the McCord Museum, we use objects, stories and shared experiences to help our visitors better understand the world around them, no matter their age or background. With our participatory approach and civic perspective, we prioritize observation, questions and dialogue in our virtual activities.

MY ALLYSHIP IN ACTION TO SUPPORT INDIGENOUS NATIONS VIRTUAL PARTICIPATORY WORKSHOP

Length: 45 minutes

Target audience: 2nd cycle of secondary school – CEGEP – University – Adult – Senior

Educational areas: Social sciences – Personal development – Ethics and religion – History and civilizations – Art history – Religious studies – Sociology – Philosophy – Indigenous studies – Literature – Arts and letters

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY

What concrete actions can we take in our daily lives to become allies in Indigenous struggles? Reconciliation requires an awareness of Indigenous realities through dialogue and tangible actions led by Indigenous and non-Indigenous individuals. Developed in response to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, this workshop is a call to action and reflection rooted in participants' ability to consider these realities and commit to reconciliatory actions. It will spark individual and collective actions to create dialogue and not speak on others' behalves. The process starts today! Participants are invited to examine the impacts of colonization and contribute to an intercultural approach to start a conversation for future generations.

STRATEGIES

Questioning and discussion

ATTITUDES DEVELOPED

Self open-mindedness – Open-mindedness

MAJOR THEMES

Transforming the world

Humans have always wanted to control their environment by creating machines, devices, objects and new techniques. These inventions enrich our daily lives and transform our relationship to the world.

Open-mindedness

In the effervescence of large city centres, cultures mix, and ways of living, being and doing are enriched. From this diversity emerges curiosity that becomes the source of renewed dialogue.

INFORMATION ON ONLINE ACTIVITIES

Online tour

The cultural mediator will lead a virtual tour of the exhibition through a video developed by the Educational, Citizen and Cultural Action team at the McCord-Stewart Museum. It will be projected onto a large screen from the classroom computer. The mediator and students are free to discuss the topics at hand, as they are presented. Like the guided tours at the Museum, the in-class guided tours involve interaction. The educator must remain close to the computer should any technical difficulties arise.

Required materials

- A computer with an Internet connection, speakers, a microphone and, ideally, a webcam;
- A projector (classroom activities).

The video should be projected on a large screen (IWB, large television, screen etc.)

Signing in

The cultural mediator will interact with the group through Zoom. Once your reservation has been confirmed, you will receive detailed sign in information for the Zoom platform. It is strongly recommended that you acquaint yourself with the sign in process before the start of the virtual activity.
